Dear Dan:

I thought I had better drop you a line, as we are playing Cleveland in Yankee Stadium next week as you know. In this weeks edition of The Amsterdam, you have a pretty big story in the center of the page, saying Cleveland beat us in Rochester July 18th 11-4. This is correct, but The Eagles and Cleveland played five games on the trip, and we won two and lost two and tied one. I think this story might help the crowd a little, and not let them think Cleveland run us out of the park-period. The scores follow;

July 18 at Rochester Cleveland 11 Eagles 4
(incidentally this was the day the Eagles traveled west leaving here 7AM, teams are usually a little beat when they finish these trips.)

July 19 rain

20 Eagles 13 at Warren a local team 4

21 Eagles 6 Cleveland 5

Eagles 1 Cleveland 1 (curfew law)

22 Eagles 8 Cleveland 5

23 Eagles 5 Cleveland 8

We return home August 6th, after being away three weeks, we will be playing Kansas City with Satchell pitching. Will appreciate a little special mention. Try and get over if you can.

This week end so far, we beat The Grays in "ilmington Friday night 17-3, and The Stars in Philadelphia last night 6-5. We are playing The Grays a doubleheader in Washington today.

Thanks for everything, Sincerely
